STIPULATION REGARDING SERVICE
OF ORDER INSTITUTING
PROCEEDINGS

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED, by Laurie Bebo and the Division of Enforcement of the Securities and Exchange Commission, through their respective counsel, that undersigned counsel for Ms. Bebo acknowledges and accepts service upon her of the Order Instituting Public Cease-and-Desist Proceedings (the "OIP") as of December 6, 2014.

IT IS FURTHER STIPULATED that, by acknowledging and accepting service and by counsel's appearance otherwise in this matter, Ms. Bebo expressly preserves and keeps all other defenses or objections to or in the proceedings (apart from the validity of service of the OIP), including but not limited to, the Commission's jurisdiction, the venue of the action, and the propriety of the proceedings under the United States Constitution or other applicable law.

IT IS FURTHER STIPULATED that the Commission agrees not to argue at any time in any action or proceeding that acknowledging and accepting service or counsel's appearance on Ms. Bebo's behalf in this proceeding constitutes her consent to proceed in these proceedings or otherwise waives any challenges to the proceedings.

IT IS FURTHER STIPULATED that, pursuant to Rules 220 and 310 of the Commission's Rules of Practice, Ms. Bebo's answer to the OIP shall be due on December 26, 2014 and that failure to so answer could result in a default in the proceedings.
